AROUND THE DOME

Around the Dome of North Side we have added, in this past year, a wealth of experiences to our already large store. Seniors reminisced as the new freshmen began taking part in the traditional Domeland activities. We saw the enrollment figure grow to a new high of nearly two thousand students. Visible evidences of the swell in population were in the construction of a dream school cafeteria and six new classrooms in the old cafeteria wing. Daily classes were our reasons for spending hours at North Side, but they provided only a fraction of the memories that we will associate with our high school. In the following pages we, the 1958 Legend Staff, proudly tell the story of our last weeks Around The Dome.

It was back to school early for grid hopefuls. Football practice began in mid-August and demanded many daylight hours of rough workouts.

AROUND THE DOME

After a summer of silence, the halls of Domeland began to echo with friendly greetings, the click of typewriters, yells of the grid coach, music from 119 or 120, and the bang of locker doors. Once again the lives of North Siders had to be molded into the school day routine.

A record high number of students was enrolled in North Side in September. Included in the population were 597 freshmen, 551 sophomores, 437 juniors, and a senior class of 338. An economy-size faculty of 81 completed the Redskin roll call.

A perplexed "Where is my name?" is often heard on the first day of school from many of the new frosh who are directed to look for their home room numbers on posted lists.

THE HALLS ONCE AGAIN ECHOED . . .

Baffled frosh Howard Habig asks experienced senior Dave Rinne for directions to his next class. Diane Behrens and Susan Baker laughingly recall their similar experiences four years ago.

All seniors will testify to the extraordinary beauty of the sunrise, especially when it's the day of the short story deadline in English 7. Dixie Durr looks as though she has already put in a long night.

The first assembly of the year was sponsored by the Northerner in an effort to prove that everyone reads the school publication. Here Ron Easley is fiercely expressing his wish for the Northerner held by Dixie Durr, as Sue Lehman, Deanna Hockemeyer, and Dianne Lapp watch intently.

... AS FALL ARRIVED

"Crazy Seniors!" say Chuck Hawk, Steve Bates, and Tom Fair, with smirks that speak louder than words. Brenda Steward retorts, "The guys had Ivy League Day! Why not us?"

"Will you sign mine next?" is a familiar request on the annual Student Council "Get Acquainted Day". Here Harriet Ruchman, Barb Popp, Stuart Raher, Carol Saaf, and Carole Winkler keep themselves busy signing their John Hancock's.

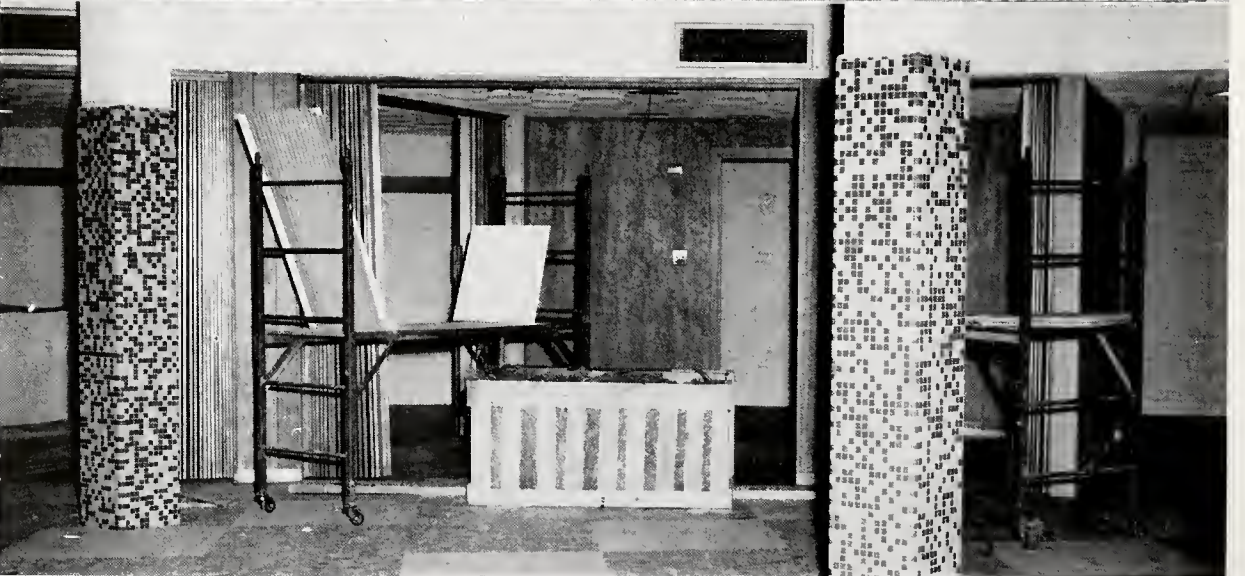

Synonymous with Fall in the hearts of all true Americans is the World Series. These pupils are not taking it easy. More nervous energy is being spent here before the T.V. set than in any classroom. No wonder, the Braves are behind!

At the end of September, the new bulletin boards in the stairwells were plastered with signs telling each Redskin to vote for this or that student candidate. Each candidate was nominated in a class meeting. A second meeting permitted the presidential and vice presidential nominees to give campaign speeches. Left: John Stout leaves the voting machine as Denny Anglin, Jim Link, Stu McMahan, and Bill Clark wait in line. Right: "Who dat 'der?" Lots of friendly rivalry developed as shown by Jim Link who is objecting to Jill Deeley's choice of candidates.

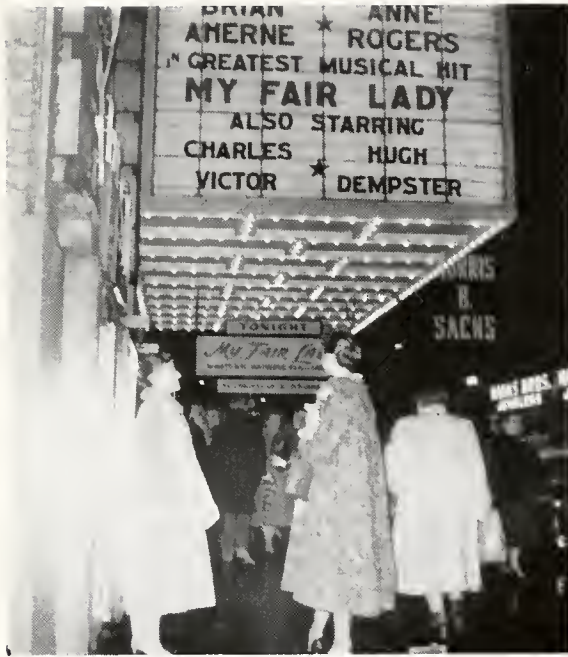

INCREASED POPULATION REQUIRED NEW CAFETERIA

Because of the increased population at Domeland, we were forced to invent bigger eating accommodations. In the Spring of 1957, the "space under the Dome" was cleared, resulting in the loss of such landmarks as the rifle range and the journalism files. While Redskins were vacationing, workmen were busy trying to meet the September deadline.

Construction was completed in October, and the cafeteria was initiated by students at an after-game dance. The third floor cafeteria was used the final time before school closed for teachers' convention, after which North Siders enjoyed eating lunch in a dream school cafeteria. Flowers and words of congratulations were mementoes of the opening.

Several lucky students joined Mr. James Purkhiser's whirlwind trip to Chicago in mid-December. Among the attractions seen in the windy city was the musical comedy "My Fair Lady." Susie Lehman and Dixie Durr pause before going into the theater.

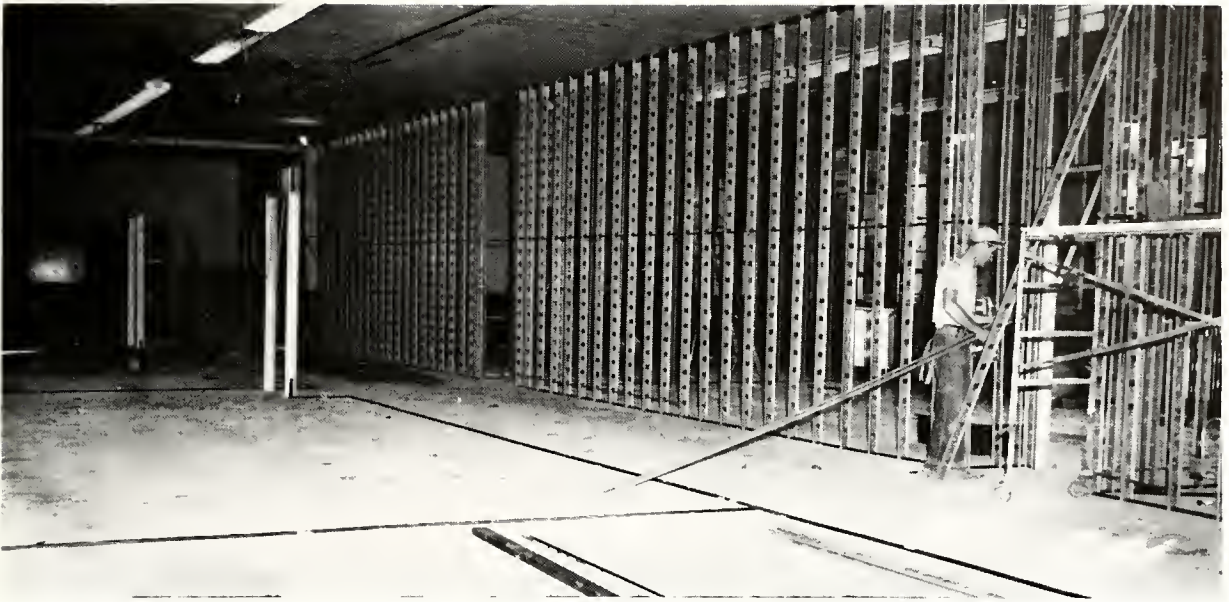

When winter moved in, Christmas vacation began, and North Side was abandoned for two full weeks. Some headed South; others braved the cold, but no matter the place, we kept in mind the true meaning of Christmas.

While their traveling friends sunned in the surf, stay-at-homes enjoyed, when weather permitted, ice skating and tobogganing. The New Year's gay parties and dances momentarily lightened the dread of the January final exams. However, seniors once again were reminded that their high school careers were almost at an end as they began their final semester.

WINTER APPROACHED; WE LOOKED

Extra money comes in handy at holiday time. Senior Doug LaFollett, who works at a local pet store, even has the holiday spirit and is being extra nice to his chinchilla.

While Redskins were enjoying a gala vacation, workmen were busily turning the old cafeteria into seven good-sized classrooms that were ready for second semester classes.

FORWARD TO CHRISTMAS VACATION

Holiday on Ice, a la Lakeside, is being enjoyed by vacationers. Sandy Webster receives a dubious helping hand from her buddies Colleen Longworth, Hilke Stoeckelmann, Margo Roth, Phyllis Born, and Marcia Grant.

Parties, parties, parties! Sandy Liniger and Sharon Wehrle enjoy punch with their host, Tom McMahan.

WITH SPRING CAME SECTIONALS,

The high point of any junior's social life is the junior prom. This year, the class of 1959 presented "Bali Hai" at the Woman's Club. After a night of prom and party hopping, class President Johnny Johnson brings home his date, Suzanne McNelley.

Sectionals always signal that Spring is just around the corner. Whether one's favorite team wins or loses, excitement is at a peak. Carolyn Kelsey and Susan Brase are anxious to get to the Coliseum while fellow cheering block members Bobbi Horne, Shari Hoepfner, Nancy Huff, and Donna Comer insist that confetti is also important.

A number of activities marked the seasonal change from Winter to Spring. Around the middle of February the Big Dome buzzed with Sectional talk, and in the following weeks we watched South Side take giant steps toward the State Basketball title. As Hoosier madness died down, trip fever grew to its height, with upperclassmen preparing for their five day jaunt to New York City and the nation's capital.

That we were fast nearing the end of another school year was made more significant in the approaching of the Junior Prom. But Spring and all its beauty was best felt in the meaning of Easter.

PROMS, EASTER

Right: "Alleluia", "Christ The Lord is risen"! Such glorious phrases make students stop and analyze their goals in life and count their blessings. Appreciating the majesty of the stained glass window are John Stout and Florence Winkler.

Below: Since the final day of Christmas vacation, the week of March 28 to April 4 was circled in bright red on many a Red-skin calendar. Spring vacation was highlighted by 180 students journeying on the New York-Washington trip sponsored by the Social Science department and Globe-trotters. Trip preparations were many, as is shown by Sharon Hazelett as she pays her final bill to Mr. Henderson, selects just the right wardrobe, and says good-bye to her father, Mr. Ervin H. Hazelett.

SPRING FEVER HAS STRUCK AGAIN

Spring is here, which means it's time to clean out the lockers . . . a job that isn't particularly appreciated by Esther Breese.

"Come into my apple tree," says Cindy Blitz to her nature-loving friend Dave Lewis.

Perhaps worse than the Asian flu epidemic that struck Domers last fall is the annual plague of spring fever. Symptoms are evident as sophomore Phyllis Born shows advanced stages of window gazing, thoughts of love, and last minute hair combing. Hard working Marcia Grant appears unaffected by the balmy air.

IN REDSKIN HEARTS

Right: Through the years many customs have grown to become an important part of North Side. Many traditions come at the end of the year with Senior day, Baccalaureate, and Commencement. Another tradition is the Senior Door, through which Sharon Sauer and Neil Byrt are going for the final time.

Below: Another favorite tradition is the signing of Legends. During the final week of school, echoes of "Sign my Legend" are heard around the Dome. Going through the ritual for the last time are Bonnie Braun, Sue Bligh, Sharon Peters, Charlene Harmeyer, Judy Quas, and Carolyn Gallmeier, as sophomore Charlotte Harmeyer looks on.

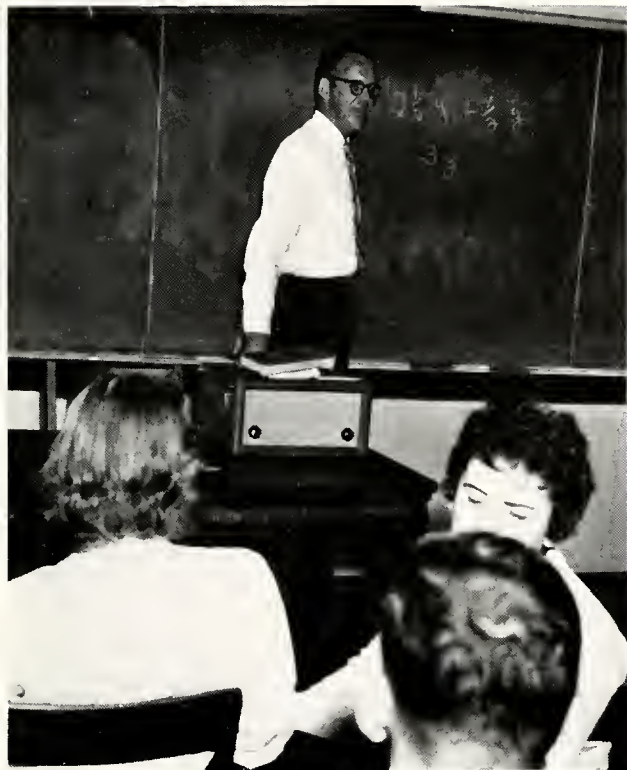

English 8, commonly known as the toughening up course for college, climaxes seven terms of getting acquainted with the English language. One of the projects for Miss Mabel Greenwalt's class is the analyzing of creative writing in the Atlantic Monthly.

VARIED CURRICULA PROVIDE LADDER TO GOALS

With the varied curricula and the supervised study at North Side, Jack has no chance of becoming a dull boy. In their freshman year, students choose their basic course of study from the many fields that are available. Basic courses—the business, academic, business-academic, and general — are outlined to best benefit the needs of the student. Each has a set of minimum requirements, but a student is free to elect courses according to his special interests. Specific classes are offered in the fields of speech, journalism, mathematics, social science, foreign language, science, art, business, home economics, industrial arts, physical education, and music. With the subject matter taught by experienced teachers, a student gains the vital equipment with which he can achieve his life goal.

Algebra I is a basic requirement for most North Siders, a first foreign language for some. Perhaps wondering if "y" may be used interchangeably with "x", Barbara Haggard looks puzzled at Mr. Lewis' example of a simple algebra problem. Nine semesters of MATHEMATICS are available.

For prospective scientists, North Side offers five years of SCIENCE. Juniors and seniors may take physics, a course that combines book knowledge with some find-out-yourself information in the laboratory. Sharon Kellogg and Donelda Lane are busily trying to figure out a pendulum experiment.

SOCIAL SCIENCE is a must for all students. One of the semester's activities in Mr. Harry Young's Civics class was the dramatization of the Second Continental Congress. George (Delmar Proctor) Washington is listening to Patrick (Steve Hofer) Henry object to a resolution.

Counter-clock-wise:

SPEECH is a profitable course to aid one in feeling at ease before groups. Bob Zager, with the help of Mr. Purkhiser, benefits from a semester's experience at the podium.

Mr. Whittern explains a practical experiment in PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.

LATIN, FRENCH, AND SPANISH are the foreign languages offered. Miss Foster is showing her class the Pledge of Allegiance in Latin.

HEALTH is required of all seniors before being graduated. This is an informal class, as is shown by Mr. Chambers who is leading his class in discussion.

Clock-wise:

ART is available to all students as an elective. Pat Deahl, Ida Braden, and Joan Beeching work on a modeling project in Miss Wernhoff's class.

HOME ECONOMICS provides invaluable training for girls interested in domestic studies. Several girls examine the garment made by a member of Mrs. Nold's class.

TYPING is a profitable course for any student. Students are shown working on a speed practice during class with Mrs. Chapman.

FAMILY LIVING is an elective for upperclassmen in which students get together for informal discussions on many interesting topics.

The top group of the vocal MUSIC DEPARTMENT is A Cappella, shown here preparing for their Christmas concert.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS courses are beneficial to boys as they are taught to use the various types of machines and, at the same time, to produce something worthwhile through their efforts. Mr. Wert explains the operation of the lathe to several of his students.

Mr. Thompson aids one of his students in a classroom MECHANICAL DRAWING project.

Down to business and in the midst of a class discussion is Mr. Simon, teaching his class some of the fundamentals of BUSINESS LAW.

COLORED RIBBONS DISTINGUISH HONOR STUDENTS

RECOGNITION DAY

Come Recognition Day, bright colored ribbons, signifying faculty recognition of year-long achievement, are proudly sported by deserving students. This day, near the end of the school year, is intended to honor those students whose academic and extra-curricular contributions in any field have been outstanding.

The setting of the assembly itself is impressive. As students gaining recognition march into the stadium, to the music of the band, the remainder of the student body stands. Then, as teachers representing different departments speak, those students being recognized stand. After actual classroom and club work achievement has been recognized, specific awards are made.

A typical scene of deep concentration in the hallowed hall of 316. Here frosh, sophs, juniors and seniors meet for one common purpose.

Movie man Dick Lewis sets up shop for the enjoyment and enlightenment of viewers in the auditorium.

STUDENTS BENEFITTED

"Today we are on assembly schedule." This announcement makes students perk up in homerooms as they anticipate some special program.

Assemblies are not the only form of variation from class schedules by which Redskins benefit. Special movies, slides, and records are presented in classrooms by members of the audio-visual education team. All these add to the personality of a school, which is called school spirit. Redskins display their school spirit in pep sessions and at the athletic events.

A rush scene takes place at eight o'clock of any school morning as the students hasten to return books to the school librarian, Miss Ethel Shroyer.

BY ROUTINE BREAKS

Top Left: One of the more hair-raising assemblies was that in which nuclear reactions were explained and demonstrated by a representative from the laboratories at Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Ron Wersky found out that the atom is not a good hair oil. Top right: Dr. Louis A. Warren, a top Lincoln authority, was the featured speaker at the annual Helicon Lincoln-Washington assembly. Deanna Hackemeyer and Linda Keller also spoke. Below: Muscle men Stuart McMahan, John Stout, and Dan Fulkerson display some of the hidden talents of the senior class.

Always busy behind the scenes were director Mr. James Purkhiser and the stage crew composed of Bob Zager, Tom Mullins, Del Proctor, Dick Walters, Jerry Zern, and Steve Hofer.

VARSITY VARIETIES CONDUCTS TOUR 'ROUND WORLD

Right: An act featuring the wicked woman from Kansas City, Dixie Durr, represented the country west of the Mississippi.

Bottom Left: "Wonnaful, Wonnaful." And it was! Tom Mullins and his fellow actors, including the Lennon Sisters, kept the audience laughing.

Bottom Right: First stop in the British Isles was Scotland, just in time to catch some Bonnie Lassies "Rockin' Through The Rye".

Center: Two colorful acts, the French Madames, featuring Deanna Hockemeyer, and the South American dancers, featuring Dixie Durr, helped to carry out the travel theme.

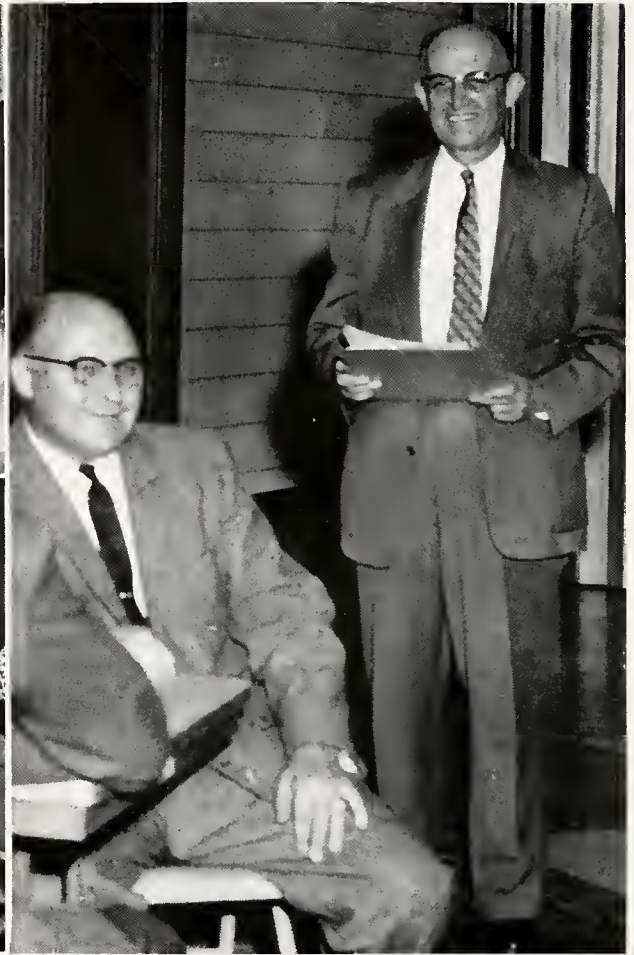

Below: The Siamese magician, Delmar Proctor, and his two slaves mystified the audience as anxious back stage watchers awaited their turn before the foot lights.

FACULTY

VARIETY OF TASKS DEMAND VERSATILE PRINCIPAL

Mr. O. Dale Robertson, who fulfills the post of principal of North Side High School, is a leader and guide to both the faculty and students. From the time his familiar voice booms forth over the public address system with his daily welcome of "Good Morning North Side," Mr. Robertson must accomplish many duties. Some of his special duties, aside from administering a school of two thousand pupils, include advising Student Council, counseling with parents, teachers, and students, and this year, organizing the Fort Wayne basketball tournaments. He also attends many group functions, such as class and club banquets, dances, and proms.

Still Mr. Robertson has time to teach Sunday School at Wayne Street Methodist Church, where he regularly attends services. He is a member of Fort Wayne's Rotary Club and often takes North Side boys as visitors to the regular Monday meetings. For relaxation, Mr. Robertson enjoys reading and playing an occasional game of golf.

As Superintendent of the Fort Wayne City Schools, Mr. Aaron T. Lindley has provided an efficient administration during his six years in this position. His willingness to help and his expert guidance have been and always will be appreciated.

The P. T. A.'s goal of amicable relations between teachers and parents is gained only through the hard work of its officers. They are, standing left to right: Mrs. Albert Ungerer, secretary; Mrs. Charles Brubaker, acting president; Mrs. Maurice A. Cook, treasurer; Mr. Glenn Bickel, second vice president; and seated, Mrs. Robert Cambridge who served as president until she and her family moved in January.

Being official day mother to two thousand teen-agers is only one of the multitude of responsibilities of Dean Victoria Gross. Although her time is constantly in demand, Miss Gross always has a minute for even the smallest problem of any Redskin. Her friendly and helpful nature are as much a legend at North Side as the Big Dome itself.

Larry Knop also achieved an average better than 90 but was absent when the picture was taken.

Carol Bellew, H. Paul Haberly, and Michael Jones maintained above 90 averages, but were ineligible for honor roll as they attended North Side for fewer than three years.

Counter-clockwise

Seniors will never forget "Charley's Aunt", the first highlight of their year. Cast members spent long hours in preparing this first rate production.

Yes! And some seniors tried out for the basketball team. Obviously, Jim Kowalczyk did not make it.

The senior banquet, "Patterns", was another unforgettable evening. Especially so was the prophesy by Tom Mullins and Sue Walter. Afterwards, we celebrated at parties.

Clockwise

When not madly studying . . . we attended parties. Dick Pence, Rita Whipple, Susan Bower, and Diane Culbertson exchange jokes at a holiday open house.

Watching juniors prepare for "Bali-Hai", we were reminded of our own chicken wire days.

We enthusiastically learned the facts of college life during guidance assemblies.

Nevertheless, we too made it. The class of '58 donned their caps and gowns for their final trek down the football field.

Elected officers for the '58ers were Hank Schollett, President; Dennis Oser, Vice President; Sue Bligh, Secretary-Treasurer; and Dennis Anglin, Chairman of the Social Council. John Shoaff and Tom Tate were on the social council.

IN MEMORIUM

On May 20, 1957, North Side lost a true friend with the death of Walter Nickerson. Walt was a member of Home Room 222 and a familiar face around North Side. Shortly before Christmas in 1956 Walt was confined to bed, and the following five months were long and painful.

Walt attended Forest Park Grade School and belonged to the Christian Science Church. He was often seen with his friends Larry Bilger and Jerry Palm. He participated in many activities, among them being Hi-Y, Key Club, Jr. Red Cross, J. F. L., and freshman football.

Those of us who knew Walt will long remember him.

To Remember Us By . . .

'CHARLEY'S AUNT'

For two November nights, laughter echoed throughout Domeland as "Charley's Aunt," the Senior Play for the class of '58, literally brought down the house. The cast, under the dramatic coaching of Mr. James Purkhiser and musical direction of Mr. C. William Hatt, gave excellent performances for the special senior audience Thursday night and to the general public Friday.

Taking place in England, the plot revolved around two young men, trying to impress two young ladies, and two aunts, both proclaiming to be Charley's Aunt from Brazil," where the nuts com from."

Top: Stuart McMahan proposes to Charley's Aunt in the garden.

Middle: In one of the musical interludes, Dixie Durr dances as three of her suitors serenade her with "Once In Love With Amy."

Top: In the colorful "Brazil" number, which featured Barb Griffith as soloist, the chorus put the audience into the South American mood.

Middle: Lovely ladies Barb Griffith, Carol Blessing, Dortha Hill, Lenora Meyer, Diene Culbertson, and Sue Borkenstein help Deanna Hockemeyer and Phil Cantelen sing "My Darling".

Counter-Clockwise

Smiling broadly, showing off one of the assets of their most engaging personalities, are Letty Bryce and Stuart McMahan. Stu was also voted the boy with the most school service.

Alice Rudensky, the girl most likely to succeed and also the best girl speaker, is reminded that she is still merely a female by the condescending glances of Denny Anglin and John Stout. They were voted the boy most likely to succeed and best speaker, respectively.

Judy Moris and Ed Feustel, the most studious pair, try to pick up a Sputnik signal on Ed's short wave set.

Really cutting a rug are the two best dancers of the class, Dixie Durr and Steve Carpenter.

"I can sing anything better than you!" booms Jim Link, as Bobbi Griffith sings, "No you can't!" This pair was selected the best singers by their classmates.

Clockwise

'Make up your mind!' beg Hank Schollett and Terry Lindenberg of Pat Vickers. The trio was voted the best looking seniors.

It doesn't look as though this is Ron Easley's idea of humor, but Jill Deely seems to be enjoying herself. These two were voted the Seniors with the best sense of humor.

Who said chivalry died in the dark ages? Skip Haberly, the most courteous boy, helps Sue Bligh, the most courteous girl, cross the mud at a curb. Sue was also voted the girl with the most school service.

"Aren't you cute!" queries Susie Lehman of John Shoaff. The duet were voted the best actress and actor.

Tom Seifert looks on in amazement as Lucy McNagny demonstrates her strength. The two were voted best athletes.

Clockwise

Juniors live it up at an after game dance in the cafeteria.

These junior gals are having a skull session at a week-end slumberless party.

'Rock and Roll is Here To Stay' . . . so say Jim Blackburn and Carol Buckmaster who are "At The Hop" in the cafeteria.

Look at those poker faces! Mike Poorman, Dale Zumbaugh, Jack Arney, and Carl Weaver must be conducting some pretty serious deals.

Oh! The urge to kill! Karen Karger and Marla Grove help Pat Krawl into the death chamber.

SOPHOMORES

Soph officers go over some of the plans for their class party, "Sweet Sixteen". They are: seated, Kay Regedanz, Social Chairman, and Carolyn Kelsey, co-Vice President. Standing are Secretary-Treasurer Tom Hayhurst, President John Bentz, and co-Vice President Paul Wehrenberg.

Clockwise

Frosh voters turn out on election day to choose their favorite candidates.

Frosh were quick to pick up Domeland customs, as was proved by the number of posters plastered on stairwell bulletin boards. Marlene Stutz, Lois McDowell, Jean Brasher, and Mary Lou Haberly examine a few of them.

Ardent fans of Club 21 are Danny Ferris, Donna Bair, Bonnie Yoder, and Bruce King.

Baby it's cold outside! Hard-hearted Marilyn Zager keeps buddies Kay Morris, Beverly Wappes, and Betsy Thompson out in the cold.

ACTIVITIES

Student Council was organized for the purpose of creating better relationships and understanding between the student body and school administration. Members, elected from clubs and home rooms, aid in school government and plan many school events. The most popular project of the council is the annual Get-Acquainted Day in the fall. At Christmas time, Student Council again undertook the crusade to aid needy families. On Junior High Evening in the Spring, prospective North Siders were taken on a tour of the school by council members. Each year the council also conducts a drive to raise money used for the support of two war orphans. A new project, undertaken to supplement council funds, was selling North Side notebooks with attractive red and white covers. The following were elected officers for the year: Stu McMahan, president; Paul Haberly, vice president; Sue Bligh, secretary; Sue Lehman, treasurer; Jim Link, parliamentarian; and Steve Gresley, sergeant-at-arms. Principal Robertson served as advisor.

Members Study Hoosiers, Science In Helicon

Some years ago Helicon was organized to study the literary achievements of authors, poets, and essayists. Each semester a theme is picked which acts as a basis for the literature that is then studied. This year's themes were Hoosier Authors and Science Fiction. Activities for this year included a Christmas program for the Allen County Infirmary, the Spring Tea, and the Senior Farewell. First semester officers were Judy Moris, president; Roy Butzier, vice president; Letty Bryce, secretary; and John Stout, treasurer. Lynn Rosenbaum, Maury Cook, Marcia Wible and Sue Borkenstein served as social, program, membership, and publicity chairmen, respectively. Others were Dixie Durr, service recorder; and Dortha Hill and Paulann Hosler, critics. Second semester officers were Marcia Wible, Dortha Hill, Roy Butzier, and Dixie Durr serving as social, membership, program, and publicity chairmen, respectively. Others were Bev Beck, service recorder; and Tom Pence and Linda Keller, critics.

Under the able direction of Mr. Harry Young and Miss Katherine Rothenberger, Globetrotters tries to promote interest in the study of people of foreign lands, the methods of their governments, and world affairs in general. The club is composed of students who have distinguished themselves in social science studies. Various projects of the Globetrotters this year included a Christmas party, an after-game dance, and a spring picnic. Officers who were elected for the second semester were Paul Haberly, president; Roy Butzier, vice president; Diane Culbertson, secretary; Bonnie Briggs, treasurer; and John Stout and Stuart McMahan, co-social chairmen.

Students Pursue Modern Languages

Modern Language Club was formed by the merging of French and Spanish clubs. It not only offers opportunities for advancement in that field, but also strives to make the students better adjusted socially, as they take part in each meeting. Activities for the club have been a dance, co-sponsored with the Junior Classical League, and a joint Christmas party. In the spring they again joined for their annual picnic.

First semester officers were John Cooper, president; Janet Loudermilk, vice president; Dianne Brandt, secretary; Carolyn Kelsey, treasurer; and Judy Glock, chairman of the social committee. Officers for the second semester were Darlene Snyder, president; Dianne Brandt, vice president; Sharon Getz, secretary; Steve Fawley, treasurer; and Ron Madden, chairman of the social committee.

Classicists Study Ancient Civilization

Junior Classical League is a national organization composed of classical clubs throughout the United States. Its purpose is to encourage among the students a greater understanding and appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Greece and Rome. Our own J.C.L.'s events for the season included a Christmas party held in the cafeteria, a joint dance and picnic held with the Modern Language club. The officers for the fall term were Barbee Moriarty, senior consul;

Deanna Hinshaw, junior consul; Judy Rice, scriba; Martha Miller, quaestor; John Bentz and Becky Wright, aediles; Paul Wehrenberg, praedicator. Second term officers were Judy Rice, senior consul; Deanna Hinshaw, junior consul; Vernell Gehron, scriba; Deanna Marquart, quaestor; Madelyn Beberstein and Marilyn Hicks, aediles; John Bentz, praedicator. The club was advised by Miss Judith Bowen, Miss Lorraine Foster, and Mrs. Marjorie Spoolstra.

Young Waltons Study Nature's Mysteries

Sponsored by Miss Vesta Thompson and Mr. Clifford Ott, Nature Club enables its members to gain a better knowledge of the out-of-doors and wild life, and to have fun doing it. Besides hikes and trips in warmer weather, the club offers members a chance to develop interesting hobbies, cultivate interests in nature, and collect materials for research. The following members were elected as officers for the year: Paul Haberly, president; Jerry Hickman, vice president; Carole Mc Collum, secretary; and Sandra Cooper, treasurer.

Phy-Chem Interests Scientific Minded Students

Membership in Phy-Chem is open to junior and senior students in physics and chemistry classes. Its purpose is to stimulate further interest in the sciences. Demonstrations and experiments are given at the meetings by club sponsors Mr. Harold Thomas and Mr. Sherman Pressler. Officers for the fall semester were Denny Oser, president; Tom McMahan, vice president, Sue McNelley, secretary; Steve Carpenter, treasurer; and D. G. Bojrab, social chairman. Officers for the spring semester were D. G. Bojrab, president; Dan McIver, vice president; John Cooper, secretary; John Shoaff, treasurer; and Wayne Payne, social chairman.

Programs Help Prospective Teachers Plan Future

F.T.A. was organized to cultivate the fundamental qualities in teaching for students interested in educational work. The organization, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Ann Chapman, also tries to help undecided students pick their vocations by planning their programs with speakers, panel discussions, and visits to colleges. Members also substitute as student teachers when the regular instructor is unable to attend his class. Officers elected for the first semester were as follows: Nancy Cambridge, president; Jane Glock, vice president; Harriet Ruchman, secretary; and Roy Butzier, treasurer. Officers for the second semester were: Jane Glock, president; Sandy Schamerloh, vice president; Carol Blessing, secretary; and Margot Musselman, treasurer.

While Mr. Cleon Fleck seems to be taking life easy, Carol Blessing ambitiously leads his class in a discussion. Many F.T.A. members gain practical experience substituting for teachers.

Juniors Further National Red Cross Aims

Jr. Red Cross is an important service club to the community as well as a link between the school and the American Red Cross. In the event of a disaster J.R.C. stands ready with the local chapter to give whatever aid is needed. The club also participates in various activities such as wrapping presents for aged women at the Rest Home for Women and making joke books and writing portfolios for patients in the Veteran's Hospital. Through such activities as these, the Jr. Red Cross hopes to make the lives of those who are less fortunate, a little more enjoyable. Also this year, like last, the club sponsored a combination sock hop and Valentine dance. The following were elected officers for the year: Marcia Wible, president; Stu McMahan, vice president; Paulann Hosler, secretary; Phil Cantelon, treasurer; Tom McMahan, membership chairman; and Barbee Moriarty, social chairman. Advisors were Mrs. Alice Nusbaum and Mrs. Charles Clark.

At the "Coronation Hop" Valentine dance a king, Mike Dafforn, and a queen, Karyn Bobay, were crowned by Diane Culbertson and John Cooper, respectively.

Polar-Y Grows In Mind, Body, Spirit

Affiliated with the Y.W.C.A., Polar-Y strives to maintain a Christian atmosphere at North Side. This club is open to any girl who wishes to join and it provides many activities for the members. The yearly program of activities includes Y-Teen conferences, an after-game dance, the Mother-Daughter Senior farewell, the annual banquet and the Faculty Tea.

Officers for the first semester were Stephana Houk, president; Mary Huth, vice president; and Kay Regedanz, secretary-treasurer. Second semester officers were Mary Huth, Nancy Starkel, and Judy Rice, respectively. Advisors were the Misses Lorraine Foster and Marjorie Bell.

"To create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community," is the Hi-Y pledge. The club is a high school branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, and is affiliated with the state and national Hi-Y. The club participates in an annual city wide drive to collect money to contribute to the World Service Drive. The club also carries on other drives to raise money for Hi-Y projects. The officers serving Hi-Y for the year were Dan Cunningham, president; Tom Pence, vice president; Dan Fulkerson, secretary; Dick Pence, treasurer; Bill Trulock; chaplain; and Dave Myers, sergeant-at-arms. The club sponsor is Mr. John Malott.

Encouraging freshman and sophomores who are interested in speech to participate in the many areas of speech work is the purpose of J.F.L. Sponsored by Mr. Lee, members are urged to take part in debate, extemporaneous speaking, humorous and dramatic declamations, and poetry reading. When these members have earned twenty points by entering speech contests, they will be admitted to the National Forensic League, a national high school honorary society for public speakers and debators. N.F.L. at North Side is under the direction of Mr. Albert Coil.

The North Side Key Club is a service club designed to develop initiative and leadership, to serve the community and school, and to prepare for useful citizenship. The northeast Kiwanis Club is the sponsor for Key Club and Mr. Glen Bickel is the faculty advisor. Membership of the club is open to any sophomore, junior, or senior boy. The main project of Key Club this year was the publishing of the North Side Key, a directory of all the students. The officers for the year were: Steve Gresley, president; Bob O'Brien, vice president; Dave Murrell, secretary-treasurer; and D. G. Bojrab, sergeant-at-arms.

Amateur Photographers Develop Skills

Camera Club, complete with a new dark-room, yields much knowledge of photography to the shutterbugs of North Side. Its yearly program includes visits to professional photography studios and camera shops. On these trips they view various equipment and learn the latest techniques in taking and developing pictures. North Side is fortunate to possess the excellent photography equipment that the camera club is permitted to use, provided it is handled in the right manner. Those members who served as officers for both semesters were Pat Fletcher, president; Sharon Getz, vice-president; Sandra Jacquay, secretary-treasurer; and Joan Rhodes, social chairman.

Boosters Feed Hungry Fans

Booster Club was organized in 1927 for the purpose of increasing school spirit and upholding and advancing the ideals of North Side. The ambitious Boosters' main occupation is selling refreshments to the hungry fans that flock to the concession stand at our games. At tournament time they take on the added job of selling badges and shakers. As a reward for their well-spent time and energy, Dick Marshall, Bill Phillips, and Larry Stebing received pins, while Sharon Flynn and Phyliss Gordon received guards. Assisting Mr. Noel Whittern, advisor, were officers Dick Marshall, president; Gary Brubaker, vice president; Sharon Flynn, secretary; Phyliss Gordon, point recorder; and Marsha Seibert, Student Council representative.

Growing Orchestra Blends In Fine Music

This year the membership of the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. C. W. Hatt, increased to more than fifty members. With almost twice as many members, their performances were twice as outstanding. They displayed their ability while performing in concerts, the Senior Play and Varsity Varieties. Each year many of the members complete in the Solo and Ensemble Contest, bringing home many top honors for their accomplishments. Both our orchestra and band have reached a new peak in size and musicianship. Officers elected for the year were Rhea Kittinger, president; Maury Cook, vice president; and Bill Cunningham, secretary.

Band Gains Recognition Through United Efforts

The band, under the able direction of Mr. C. W. Hatt, spent many hours practicing for the numerous activities which would be incomplete without it. The band performed untiringly at football and basketball games, pep sessions, and concerts. This year the band appeared in four concerts and two guest programs. Last fall, the "Marching Redskins" were presented the Sweepstakes trophy for the best all around band, in their division, in the Marching Contest. To climax the year, the band took a two-day concert tour through southern Indiana.

Varsity Band, Twirlers, Strive To Please

Varsity Band, under the direction of Mr. C. W. Hatt, is the first stepping stone toward becoming a member of the concert band. Freshmen and beginning music students make up the membership and they gain much practical experience.

Without our twirling lassies, one might find football and basketball games lacking in color. These charming girls spend a great deal of time practicing and perfecting many novelty and difficult routines. With the help of Mr. Hatt, the twirlers plan their own routines and costumes, hoping to please the Redskin fans.

National Thespians, N.S.I. Honor Dramatists, Musicians

The National Thespian Society was organized for the purpose of advancing the dramatic arts standards in secondary schools. Under the direction of Mr. James Purkhiser, the local North Side chapter honors those students who have distinguished themselves in the dramatic arts during their high school career. Each spring, new members are formally initiated, after which they attend a banquet.

N.S.I. is an honorary club for members of the band and orchestra. Its purpose is to further the members' interest in instrumental music. Officers elected for the year were Phil Schuman, president; Maury Cook, vice president; Rhea Kittinger, secretary; Max Bell, treasurer; and Dennis Anglin, parliamentarian. Mr. C. W. Hatt advises this group.

A Cappella, Choruses Provide Top Vocal Music

North Side's A Cappella choir, under the direction of Miss Jeanette Rich, encountered a year of many diversified programs. These concerts ranged from light to sacred in mood and many lasted an hour in length. The choir also made radio recordings, caroled at Christmas time, and took charge of the Easter assembly. In the Spring the annual concert trip climaxed a fun-filled, unforgettable year. Officers for the year were Neil Byrt, president; Bill Maloley, vice president; Judy Johnson, secretary; and D. G. Bojrab, social chairman.

Each year, before taking part in the Christmas assembly, A Cappella members carol through the halls of school.

Miss Rich happily accepts the gift given to her from the A Cappella members at the Christmas banquet. D. G. Bojrab, Sue Lehman, and Neil Byrt really seem to be enjoying themselves.

Competition Inspires Chansonettes, Triple Trio

The Chansonettes and Triple Trio are special groups composed of members from the A Cappella choir. Although there is much friendly rivalry between the two groups, both devote a great deal of time in perfecting a variety of songs. Besides performing in many of the A Cappella concerts, they also display their talents before civic organizations and clubs. The girls' attire consisted of black taffeta dresses, while the boys sported white dinner jackets and plaid cummer bunds and ties.

With the aid of accompanists Sally Elliott and Dave Murrell, the ensembles received praise wherever they performed.

1500 Club, Quill and Scroll Goal of Journalists

1500 Club is an honorary organization for all journalism students interested in working for merit awards. The aim of the journalist is to earn 1500 points for membership, then work toward higher awards consisting of a bronze pin for 1,500 points, a silver pin for 3,000 points, a gold pin for 5,000 points, and a gold jeweled pin for 10,000 points.

Membership in Quill and Scroll is the highest honor a high school student can receive in the field of journalism. This honorary society requires that a person must have done outstanding work in some phase of journalism for a period of one year or more. Members, who are upperclassmen, must also be in the upper third of their class. These members are chosen by the national executive secretary of Quill and Scroll upon the recommendation of Miss Norma Thiele, advisor.

Miss Norma Thiele is the port in the storm for workers in the publications department. During her four years at North Miss Thiele has gained a number of friends in her advising of the Legend and Northerner. The corsage in the picture was sent to her by the Northerner staff when she attended the C. S. P. A. convention in New York City. It was at this convention that the Northerner received the first class rating.

Co-operation Makes Northerner Tick

Every week, under the direction of Miss Norma Thiele, the members of a hard working Northerner staff pool their efforts and present North Side with an outstanding school paper. The Northerner educates, entertains, and stimulates student thinking on a national as well as local level.

Many citations have been awarded to the Northerner. Quill and Scroll's international honor rating, first class honor ratings by the National Scholastic Press Association, and the Columbia Scholastic award are only a few.

Serving as editor-in-chief for the first semester was Alice Rudensky; managing editor, Dave Murrell; news editor, Dick Harry; feature editor, Sherrie Reasoner; sports editor, Gary Tustison; circulation manager, Paul Wehrenberg; and business manager, Harriet Meek. The second semester staff included editor-in-chief, Dick Harry; copy editor, Dave Murrell; managing editor, Sherrie Reasoner; news editor, Sue Maxwell; feature editor, Dianne Brandt; sports editor, Sherry Moore; circulation manager, Mike Fanger; advertising manager, Pat Parker; and business manager, Mike Ormiston. Alice Rudensky was student advisor.

To present North Side with a pictorial history of the 1957-58 school year was the goal of the Legend staff. Realization of this goal began last year when editors Dianne Lapp and Letty Bryce and business manager Harriet Ruchman learned by rote from the previous staff. Plans were enlarged when Dianne attended the special yearbook instruction course at Indiana University. The success of a good yearbook rests upon a dependable staff and the cooperation of students and faculty. The '58 staff was fortunate in having both. This staff consisted of twenty seniors and four underclassmen, and was advised by Miss Norma Thiele. Deserving much credit for a job well done is the photography team of Dave Behrens, Dean Traster, Curt Drew, John Knight, and Tom Lapp. Only through the united efforts of all could we proudly present the 1958 Legend.

HARRIERS WIN

5th IN STATE

Long known for fine runners, North Side again produced a top-notch cross-country team for the 1957 season.

The hustlin' harriers from Domeland finished their cross-country season with an impressive 11 win, 2 loss, 1 tie record. Aside from this great record, the hill and dale men placed fifth in state and won the single and double Northern-Indiana-conference meets. For this they received another trophy to add to their ever-growing collection.

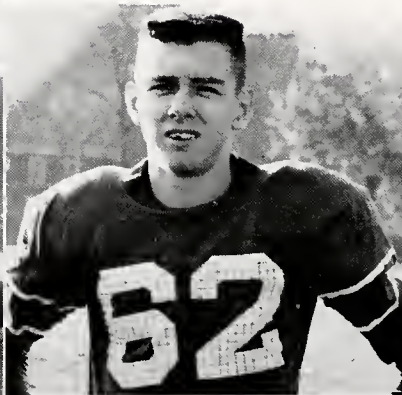

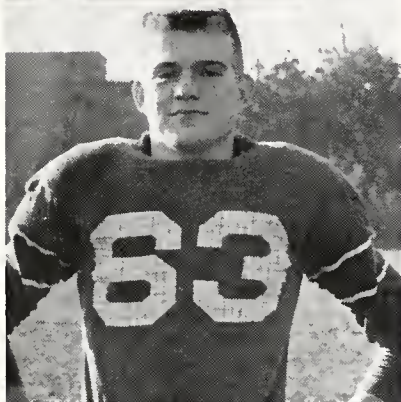

They're off! North's cross-country men start on their rugged two mile course against some stiff conference competition.

Seated are Mr. Bob Zimmerman and Mr. Rolla Chambers. Coaches Robert Cowan and Robert Edwards were absent when the picture was taken.

BRUISERS GAIN EXPERIENCE IN GRID CAMPAIGN

Four players from North were selected for the All-City football teams. They are: Hank Schollett, second team; Tom Seifert, first team, and John Shoppell, first team. Pat Riley, second team, was absent when the picture was taken. Jerry Leeth, Terry Lindenberg, Dave Haneline, Ross Bissell, Warren Bullard, Harold Dimke, and Bob Price received honorable mention.

Although North's football team did not establish as impressive a record as past teams, the boys worked hard for the Redskin cause.

For the most part, North's team was young and inexperienced and was built around a core of hard-fighting veterans. One of the achievements of the season was the development of the younger boys who will form the nucleus of next year's squad.

The grid team was seen practicing many long hours under the careful coaching of head coach, Bob Cowan, and his assistants Bob Zimmerman, Byard Hey, and Don Bruick. This staff is picked by many as the best in the city.

A fast-moving offensive team opens a big hole for Harold Dimke, enabling him to step off some valuable yardage.

Redskin, Bob Price, moves in to put a halt on one of South Side's back field men. Hank Schollett, number 76, is there to put on the finishing touches.

Dennis Anglin breaks loose for a long jaunt to paydirt for the Red and White during the pre-season football jamboree held at Northrop field.

FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHT AS FROSH, RESERVES SPARKLE

According to the season results of the Freshman and Reserve squads, the future Varsity football picture looks bright. Both teams demonstrated that they had high degrees of competitive spirit, plenty of talent, and the ability to work well together. Along with expert coaching, these teams had all the necessary ingredients for successful seasons.

Byard Hey coached the reserve team, made up of juniors and sophomores. These boys earned a near perfect record of 5 wins and 1 loss. This record included beating city rivals South Side, Central, and Central Catholic. Reserves elected Mike Musto and Jim Worley to be honorary co-captains.

The Freshman team also compiled a record of which they well can be proud, 3 wins and 2 losses. Don Bruick and Bob Edwards directed team play.

SUCCESSFUL SWATTERS

Coach Myron Henderson, who rounded his hopefuls into a strong, well-balanced aggregation, checks the road schedule of the Redskin netters. His team compiled a formidable record during their recent campaign.

North's tennis team, led by Mr. Myron Henderson, earned a 6 win and 2 loss seasonal record. Coach Henderson was proud of his team, which landed in third place in conference competition.

Tennis is a sport in which more attention is focussed on individual performance than team play. Top scorer for the Red and White was senior Jerry Swinford who came up with a 6-2 singles record and a 5-3 record in doubles. John Johnson, Phil Fretz, and Steve Williams were other dependable performers. Despite graduation losses, the club has a good supply of junior and sophomore replacements and expects good results again next year.

Steve Hofer stretches to trap a fast return.

Larry Bilger goes high in the air for the tip at the start of the North-Huntertown sectional game.

After a somewhat shaky start, Coach Don Bruick molded the hardwood-pounders into a smooth-operating quintet by late season. The spirited varsity provided many a thrill for loyal supporters during the November-February campaign. Fans witnessed 6 wins and 17 defeats, but more than North's share of "almost" victories seemed to come our way. A glance at the close scores near the end of the season verifies this.

High scoring veterans Tom Waters and Larry Bilger were pace-setters for the Redskins this year, though their work was not accomplished without the help of other experienced ball handlers. Jim Fredricks and Dick Beckman, two other seniors, were always in their fighting. Although these four will be missed next year, Coach Bruick has an experienced Varsity returning.

RESERVES AID VARSITY

The new faces that appeared on the varsity at mid-season were graduates of North's Reserves Team, which could always be seen fighting hard before each varsity game. Coached by Mr. Byard Hey, this well-trained pack of juniors and sophs was a crew not to be taken lightly by competitors. They rolled up a 12 win, 8 loss seasonal record.

FROSH HOOPSTERS PROMISING

A talented crew of twenty-one boys composed the frosh squad for the class of '61. In compiling their 5 win, 4 loss record, these boys displayed the skill and desire to win which will be valuable to future varsities. Mr. Roy Kline served as Frosh coach.

Cheer Leaders, Blocks Boost Redskin Spirit

Chosen this year as our Varsity Cheer leaders were Carole Winkler, captain, Florence Winkler, Nancy Parker, Dixie Durr, and Sanna Boxley. The girls worked very hard to learn new yells and to perfect the old ones. Mrs. Mary Nold sponsored the group until her resignation in January, when Mrs. Griggs took over for the remainder of the school year.

The boys' and girls' blocks worked closely with the yell leaders. The boys' block was organized mainly through the efforts of Stu McMahon and Phil Cantelon and was sponsored by Mr. Glen Bickel. Their humorous signs and throaty yells did much to encourage their team.

The girls' colorful block perfected many letter formation cheers and other novelty yells, such as "Satisfied", and "Click Clap". Miss Dorothy Wemhoff sponsored the girls who elected Pat Vickers as cheer chairman, and Sue Borkenstein and Deanna Hockemeyer as attendance chairman. Sue Poplett headed the planning committee of Pat Krall and Carolyn Kelsey.

The two mile relay team brought much honor to North in '58 by setting a new two mile state record at the Hoosier Relays in Bloomington. Left to right, they are Tom Martin, Jim Plumb, Bill Ewing, and Jim Hattery.

Tracksters Aim At Third Straight State Title

Duane Gordon broad jumps against South and Central at Northrop field.

North Side will long remember the efforts of our 1957 track mile relay team composed of Ron Bowman, Ed Reader, Pete Lundell, and Don Neurge, all of whom were graduated last year after leading the Redskins to a second consecutive state championship. Although the loss of these boys left a big spot to be filled, North has come back with another record-breaking relay team. This year the spotlight is on the two mile relay team composed of Tom Martin, Bill Ewing, Jim Plumb, and Jim Hattery. Despite early injury losses of Mike Poorman and George Roebach, the '58 thinlie squad, under the coaching of Rolla Chambers, has the potentiality of taking state again this year for the third straight time.

Those who will be lost by graduation this June include George Roebach, Tom Seifert, Dick Beckman, Bill Ewing, Tom Martin, Jim Plumb, and Jim Hattery.

Tom Martin displays a final surge of power to go ahead and win the mile event in the indoor meet at Notre Dame. Jim Plumb is not far behind.

Jack Hallenbeck makes his bid in the 120 yard high hurdles at the Notre Dame fieldhouse.

The climax of a great season for a great team was this presentation of the trophy to Coach Rolla Chambers. For the second straight year Redskin thinlies reigned supreme in Hoosier high school track in '57.

Tom Seifert displays the shot putting skill which may enable him to break all the records he set last year.

Mike Poorman takes that last big stride before hitting the tape in the quarter mile event.

Saw dust bouncer Jack Arney ups and overs his obstacle at the Notre Dame meet.

George Roebach, Jim Plumb, Mike Ormiston, and Harold Dimke start on a practice lap before getting down to the real business of the day.

Speedy junior Dale Zumbaugh took an early lead to go on and win the 100 yard dash in the South-Central-North contest.

Gym Classes Suit Individual Interests

North Side boys have the opportunity to participate in the various sports activities even if they do not take an active part in varsity sports. Physical education classes are held three times a week for underclass boys. The semester is divided into three parts, each specializing in a separate phase of physical education. Boys, in this way, are able to better themselves physically as well as socially while learning the qualities of leadership and sportsmanship.

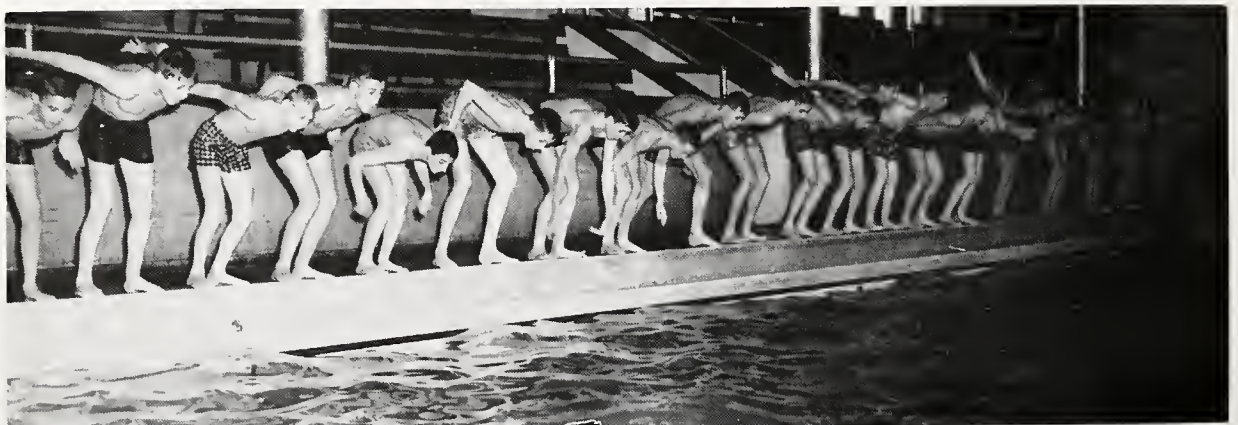

Top: During one of the six week periods, boys receive instruction in the gym.

Center: Special Development classes enable boys to better themselves physically.

Bottom: One-third of the semester is devoted to special instruction in the pool.

Blue-Suiters Gain Poise, Co-ordination

Physical education is a part of every freshman, sophomore, and junior girl's curricula. These girls meet twice a week for instruction in the gym or swimming pool.

The girls participate in many sports throughout the school year; basketball and volleyball are always prominent in the program. Other sports, such as badminton, archery, and baseball are aptly coached by the gym teachers Miss Ruth Carroll and Miss Margaret Spiegel. This year modern dance has been brought into the regular schedule in order to teach the girls poise, grace, and co-ordination.

Volleyball is the favorite team sport of most gym classes.

To the beat, beat, beat of the tom-tom by Barb Marsh, Sharon Allison, Judy Kierns, Becky Harris, and Pat Smith demonstrate a modern dance routine.

White caps are seen in North's pool during the winter months when gals' swimming classes practice under the direction of Miss Spiegel.

Sportsmanship, Leadership Ideals of G.A.A.

This year's G. A. A. officers were Judy Moris, Secretary; Sherry Moore, Vice President; Sherrill Bowman, President, and Susan Baker, Treasurer.

With girls from all classes actively participating in its program, the Girls' Athletic Association finished another successful year.

The theme behind G. A. A. is the promotion of leadership and sportsmanship. In general, this gives to girls the opportunity to develop their talents, and to become more physically, mentally, and socially fit. Besides its varied athletic activities, G. A. A. sponsors social events throughout the year. Among these are the formal initiation pot luck, freshman party, spring banquet, and an after-game dance.

Along with the elected officers, G. A. A. is advised by faculty sponsors, Miss Margaret Spiegel and Miss Ruth Carroll.

Chlorine Mermaids Meet In Ripplettes

Ripplettes, North's advanced swimming club, is composed of twenty girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

This being the odd year for the group's biennial water show, "Ripples In Rhythm", most club activity centered around interclub projects. On March 11 the Ripplettes presented a program for all girls who were interested in joining the club. Different groups displayed the required skills for the prospective members.

Linda Keller was elected president of the club at the beginning of the year. Also serving were Karen Kruse, Secretary, and Barb Griffith, Music Chairman. Miss Margaret Spiegel is the club sponsor.

Although life-saving equipment is not often needed for this group, club leaders Karen Kruse, Linda Keller, Bobbi Griffith, and Miss Margaret Spiegel are on the alert.
